SPRING 1939

Spring arrived
this year at 4:29 A. M.

And our stop watch showed she arrived strictly on time-- as usual.

Maybe we shouldn't mention it, but I wonder if she sneaked up a little bit on you? Out here she was announced by blooming primroses, daffodils, hyacinths, camelias, crocuses, and folks ARE garden conscious.

But no summer blooming flowers can be planned without including plenty of gladiolus. They make "the bright spot" of the garden in every color to suit every whim. And if those vigorous high-crowned PERRIN-grown Bulbs are used, the results are as sure as they are colorful.

Ordering now from us gives you the advantage of 20 years of
"know-how", which means tall spikes, large individual flowers, and the satisfaction of having the very best that can be grown anywhere.

Every day brings orders from all sections; so that you will not be disappointed in making your selections, we are sending you a revised catalog from which you can safely make your choice.

By the way, the ANNIVERSARY GIFT offer is still good. Just mention that you want it and it will be included, and be sure to send in your order soon so you will have your bulbs just when you need them. Then, watch them grow.

Sincerely yours,

THE PERRIN GARDENS

P. S. If you have already order once this season getting the Anniversary Gift, please mention it and we will be glad to change the selection sent in your order.
